5. In December 1950, the Seepolized training school in Parow was attended by about 300 pelice who received basic infantry training, political indoctrination, seamanship training, and instruction in Morse code. The school was equipped with four motor nine sweepers, each 30 meters long, and six small sailing vessels, formerly of the German Navy. It was said that the school would be furnished with six new gun boats from Stralsund.

the training program of the Parow school includes courses for six different seamanship careers, a course for engineer officer candidates, and a course for ship carpenters.

50X1-HUM

- The Seepolize1 boat-testing institute in Wolgast was headed by VP Kommandeur Siegfried Gerber and equipped with three motor mine sweepers with mine-sweeping gear in December 1950.
- Seepolizei offices were being established in Warnemuende, Sassnitz and Arkona in December 1950.
- 8. A Seepolized telephone exchange operated by five police has been located in the building of VP Direktion II on Patriotischer Weg, Rostock, since 15 November 1950.

 two teletypewriters would be installed there.

50X1-HUM

- A Seepolized branch telephone exchange with teletypeuriter, radio telephone and telephone station was being established in Stralsund in December 1950.
- 10. Both the Magdeburg-Rothensee shippard and the Thaelmann Shippard in Brandenburg on the Havel River were engaged in the construction of motor mine sweepers for the Seepolizei in December 1950. The building program was disguised as a "flishing-boat-project."
- II. The function of the Seepolizei is the control of ship traffic in waters outside the three-wile limit. Control of the coastal waters within the three-wile limit is performed by Grenspolizei. Grenspolizei personnel wear VP uniforms with buttons with an anchor design, while the Seepolizei wear blue naval uniforms.
- 12. A distributing point for equipment of the Seepolizei was to be established in an installation of wooden warehouses, about 200 meters from the Wolgast railroad station. In mid-January 1951, the installation was being reconditioned by a unit of 200 police commanded by VP Oberkommissar Richter, whose deputy was Oberkommissar Barkowski.
- 13. A Seepolized school of about 1,000 police is located in stone buildings and low wooden barracks buildings on the seashore near Ahlbeck. Commandant of the school is VP Kommendeur Teusch. The school is equipped with 10 to 12 boats, which allegedly included several mine sweepers of Russian origin.
- 14. VP Rat Mossek is PK officer at the Seepolizei school in Kuehlungsborn, at which signal training is conducted.
- 15. About the middle of November 1950, 1,500 police were inducted into the Seepolizei and allegedly assigned to VP units in Ahlbeck and Parcw.
